the notion of the west is commonly used in politics the media and in the academic world to date our idea of the west has been largely assumed and effective but has not been examined in detail from a theoretical perspective uses of the west combines a range of original and topical approaches to evaluate what the west really does and how the idea is being used in everyday political practice this book examines a range of uses of the west and traces how the west works in a broad array of conceptual and empirical contexts ranging from the return of geopolitics via a critical review of the debates surrounding samuel huntington s clash of civilization thesis to the question of the future of the west analysis extends further to the repercussions of the war on terror on western democracy and the processes of delineating the western from the non western as well as observations of the institutional transformations of western order jean paul pallud author of the highly acclaimed the battle of the bulge then and now presents for the first time through comparison then and now photographs a detailed account of the battle of france the forty five traumatic days from may 10 to june 24 1940 that resulted in one of the most remarkable military victories of modern times during those six weeks six nations found themselves at war fighting across four countries from the polders of the netherlands in the north to the mountains of the alps in the south and from the rhine valley to the atlantic coast jean paul pallud explores every corner of the battlefield the camera recording the scenes today where fifty years ago dutch belgian german french british and italian soldiers were locked in mortal combat battles great and small are described and illustrated to color the canvas of both the broad strategy and the individual firefight in hitler s victorious campaign of blitzkrieg in the west another weighty regimental history two volumes 820 pages in all covering the record of twenty two battalions in france flanders italy and gallipoli all of them served on the western front when war broke out the regiment consisted of two regular battalions 1st and 2nd two special reserve 3rd and 4th and four territorial battalions 5th to 8th the 1st battalion went to france with 6th division in september 1914 the 2nd battalion came home from malta to join the newly formed 8th division regular and went to france in november 1914 both battalions remained in the same brigades 18th and 23rd and divisions throughout the war the four territorial battalions each formed a 2nd and a 3rd line battalion the four original battalions made up the 146th brigade 49th west riding division arriving in france in april 1915 the second line battalions combined to make the 185th brigade 62nd 2nd west riding division which arrived in france in january 1917 kitchener s call to arms resulted in eleven service battalions being raised 9th to 18th the 17th was formed as a bantam battalion and 21st of these only 13th and 14th did not go on active service the 21st battalion became a pioneer battalion in 4th division and the 22nd was a labour battalion which also went to france this history records events in chronological order the dates of the operations being described are shown in the margin as are the identities of the battalions involved volume 1 x 355pp with 18 maps and 15 b w photos covers the period from the outbreak of war to the end of 1916 the close of the somme offensive and includes the dardanelles campaign where the 9th battalion was in action with the 11th northern division on 1st july 1916 the first day of the somme the 10th battalion attacked at fricourt and incurred the heaviest casualties of any battalion 710 of whom 307 were killed including the co 2ic adjutant and two company commanders more than half of them are in in fricourt new military cemetery which is in the no man s land across which they attacked and where they died the co lt col dickson and his adjutant capt shann lie side by side there is a roll of honour for the period covered in which the other ranks are listed alphabetically by battalions as are the territorial battalion officers the other officers are shown in one group in alphabetical order with the battalion number in front of the name although the note at the head of the officer casualty list states that the theatre in which death occurred is france and flanders unless otherwise indicated nonetheless gallipoli is not shown against the names of the officers of the 9th battalion who died there and so one is left with the wrong impression they died on the western front this report is the committee s second inquiry in the effect of the economic downturn on the people of the region the committee s terms of reference are what problems exist and how their effect can be minimised in advance of an economic upturn how effectively government agencies and other regional bodies are addressing these problems and what advice and assistance people need to help them live more sustainable lifestyles in the future the committee was particularly interested in the level of indebtedness and home reposessions availability of appropriate training the adequacy of assistance and social cohesion the committee is concerned that some of those areas most in need of additional government assistance may not be aware of new funding available and do not have the capacity to bid for it they understand that the taskforce should not be seen as the answer to every problem in the region and that it was set up to focus on the initial economic impact of the downturn however the taskforce has reach within the region and uninhibited connection to whitehall it is also recognised that the region s third sector has not been as fully engaged as they had hoped
